

Department of Philosophy
Government Degree College Ramnagar
(NAAC Accredited)
Subject: Philosophy

Programme Learning Outcomes in B. A. Course in Philosophy

The nature of universe remain an unknown quantity- a mystery and no satisfactory piecing together of even those aspect of it, which, we are acquitted has ever being accomplished. However number of opposed philosophic system, each one claiming that it makes more sense than other. From the very beginning philosophical thinking reflect upon what really matter. It looks for alternative to widely accepted views and learn to distinguished what is significant for us. When students completing B. A. course in philosophy are expecting to achieve learning outcome into following areas is as under: -

Po1: General philosophy: It helps the students to aware about basic concepts and problem of philosophy.

Po2: History of Western Philosophy: This course is designed to expose students' origin, development of philosophy and knowledge of western thinkers, major moment issues and philosophical system of ancient, medieval and modern era. It enables the student to aware about philosophical ideologies for the beneficial for future perspective.

Po3. Indian Philosophy: This course concerned with different views of classical system in Indian philosophy which chiefly concerned with orthodox and heterodox school. It also includes the theory of causation, karma, soul and liberation which is beneficial for mental and spiritual realization.

Po4. Logic: It enhances to increase the level of thinking in argumentative and competitive examination, which course covers the formal technique of evaluating argument and deducting system.

Po5. Ethics and Morality: It helps in personal and professional aspect of life. It deals with various issues concerning Business ethics, medical ethics, technology, feminisms and gender issues.

Po6. Philosophy of language: It helps to improve the understanding of words meaning and sentence. It provide the concept of truth, analysis of priori and posteriori difference, synthetic and analytic etc.

Po7. Social and Political philosophy: It enhance the knowledge regarding the philosophy of thought over the society and culture, it also analyses political ideals like justice, liberty and equality, aware about origin and development of human right.

Po8: Applied ethics: Ethical rule and principles which can apply for well being in society. It deals with theory of animal right, abortion, euthanasia, doctor-patient relation, environmental ethics etc.

Po9. Contemporary Indian thought: Reformation of Indian thought which is need of present society in modern era it covered great thinker such as Vivekananda, Swamy Dayananda Saraswati, Gandhi, Tagore, Radhakrishnan, Aurobindo etc.

Programme Objective:

- ❖ To develop critical examine of our belief and conviction.
- ❖ It explores to keep alive our sense of wonder about the world.
- ❖ It helps to formulate for himself a world views consistent.
- ❖ To promote moral principles and their application in every walk of life.
- ❖ To enable the student to recognizing expression and analysis of argument.
- ❖ Ability to summarizes the concept and idea in classroom, public discussion and presentation etc.
- ❖ How to understand the reality from different perspective.
- ❖ It overall develops the sense of value, reflective attitude and sensitive to the subtleties and complexities of philosophical judgement and lifelong commitment to leaning and inquiry.